A scenic view of the Sea of Galilee. In the foreground, a large, leafy tree stands on the left, with its trunk partially submerged in the water. A string of small, round, white lights hangs from the tree's branches. The water is a vibrant blue, and in the distance, a range of brown, hilly mountains stretches across the horizon under a clear blue sky. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

A photograph of a person standing in a large, dimly lit cave. The person is on the left side of the frame, looking towards a bright opening in the cave wall on the right. The cave walls are textured and brownish. The light from the opening creates a strong contrast, illuminating the person and the cave floor. A metal railing is visible in the foreground near the opening.
